Sources for use with Section A.

Source A: A description of a violent theft, given in evidence at a trial at the Old Bailey, 1888. The victim, John Shumaker, is giving evidence against James Hunt, who is accused of attacking him.

John Shumaker: At 11pm, I was in Cambridge Road, Whitechapel, and the accused ran out and snatched my watch chain from my waistcoat pocket. I ran after him and caught him but then another man attacked me with a stick and struck me four times on my head. I let Mr Hunt go, and he hit me with the stick which cut my nose open. He also hit me on the arm. I was then surrounded by six other attackers and I shouted for help. The accused knocked me down again and took money from my trouser pocket.

Source B: From the Penny Illustrated Paper, 1874. The drawing is about the murder of Harriet Lane by her lover, Henry Wainwright. He was a businessman who owned a workshop and warehouse in Whitechapel Road. He buried Harriet Lane's body under the floorboards of his workshop.
