SPECIMEN PAPER 2015

English - Writing

25 minutes

Instructions

- There is one task
- Use the planning box to generate ideas
- Make your writing as clear and informative as possible

Choose ONE of the following tasks.

EITHER

Write the opening of a story that begins with a text message.

You might write about:

- what is said in the text message
- what you felt and what you did next
- how you felt about what happened

OR

Write the opening of a story that begins with a lie.

You might write about:

- what lie is told
- what you felt and what you did next
- how you felt about what happened

Credit will be given for good spelling, punctuation and grammar as well as imaginative and exciting use of vocabulary. You may not need to use all the lines.

Before you start writing, think about:

- a good way of beginning your writing
- interesting words and phrases as description
- how you will show your feelings

You can use this space for planning notes if you wish:
