TONBRIDGE SCHOOL

Scholarship Examination 2017

ENGLISH II

Tuesday, 25th April 2017
9.30 am

Time allowed: 1 hour

Attempt ONE question, taking care to read the instructions.

This paper is worth 50 marks

Composition (50 marks)

Write on one of the following in prose in either fictional or non-fictional form. Credit will be given for quality, not quantity.

You should aim to display imagination in your ideas as well as your use of English expression / imagery / style / variety.

Descriptive power and/or characterisation is rewarded more than complexity of plot.

1. The high country.

2. Between the leaves.

3. An old story, newly told.

4. Twelve.

5. 'Now at last that I am dead again…'

END OF PAPER