Harrow School's Spelling Test

Which is correct?

1 Disapoint/disappoint
2 Refered/referred
3 Occurrence/ocurrence
4 Professional/proffesional
5 Benefited/benefitted
6 Here are three practise/practice papers
7 The principle/principal thing to remember is not to give up
8 Stationary/stationery will be issued later
9 We watched it's/its disappearance with dismay
10 There were fewer/less things to see this year
11 I have not been there in the past/passed few days

Proof reading

12 The green partys concern with the enviroment could slow down the affect of Global warming
13 A diet comprising caffiene and nicotine is not very holesome
14 There were definately less people at the concert this year which was dissapointing
15 Is it alright if the contract between you and I is dissolved at the end of the year?

Punctuation

16 We shall see you in five hours time
17 He likes football however he detests cricket
18 Ash wednesday marks the beginning of lent easter sunday marks its end

Answers

1 Disappoint
2 Referred
3 Occurrence
4 Professional
5 Benefited
6 Here are three practice papers.
7 The principal thing to remember is not to give up.
8 Stationery will be issued later.
9 We watched its disappearance with dismay.
10 There were fewer things to see this year.
11 I have not been there in the past few days.

Proof reading

12 The Green Party's concern for the environment could slow down the effect of global warming.
13 A diet comprising caffeine and nicotine is not very wholesome.
14 There were definitely fewer people at the concert this year, which was disappointing.
15 Is it all right if the contract between you and me is dissolved at the end of the year?

Punctuation

16 We shall see you in five hours' time.
17 He likes football, however, he detests cricket.
18 Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent. Easter Sunday marks its end.